Entertainment

ENTERTAINMENT

MUSIC

- Buy music from iTunes (separate app) and it will appear in music. You can listen to them on all of your devices.
- Organize music by song title, artists, albums, and genre.
- Create Playlists so you can listen to what you want without constantly searching.
- Shuffle or repeat music.
- You can also add music through your computer using iTunes (the icon on the computer looks the same).

PANDORA

- App that will let you play music as if it were a custom radio station.
- Access Pandora on the app or at pandora.com. Your stations will be both places that you are logged in.
- You can skip to the next song, but there is no “previous song” or “repeat” options.
- Free version that is loaded with ads and limited skips.
- Paid version $3.99/month. No ads and additional skips.

SPOTIFY

- App that will let you create playlists, so you can listen to what you want.
- Access Spotify on the app or at spotify.com. Your music will be both places that you are logged in.
- Because this is a playlist, you are able to skip as many songs as you want.
- Free version that is loaded with ads.
- Paid version $9.99/month. This gets rid of adds and you can download music.

VIDEO

MOVIES

- Buy movies from iTunes (separate app) and it will appear in movies. These can be viewed on all of your devices.
- You can buy movies in SD (standard definition) or HD (high definition). For the most part SD is good enough quality, and it is cheaper.
- Movies are organized by Movies, Home Videos, and TV Shows.
- You can also add movies through your computer using iTunes (the icon on the computer looks like the music icon).

YouTube

- Possibly my most used app I personally use.
- Users create their own channels and upload their own videos to share with everyone.
- Learn anything!
- Free to view videos, but there are ads. Ads go to pay mostly for people who create the channel.
- The highest paid YouTube Personality is Felix Kjellberg. $12 Million/Year.
- You can pay a subscription to YouTube Red for no ads, and additional videos.

NETFLIX

- Watch TV Shows, Movies, etc.
- Free to download the app, but costs $8.99
- I have never used this app, but I have a lot of friends who have. So we will learn about it on this YouTube Video:

BOOKS

iBOOKS

- Buy books directly in the app!
- Buy books featured by NY Times, Apple, and Users Choices.
- View previously purchased books.
- You can also listen to audio books.
- Free books available.
- FREE RESOURCE: If you are interested in learning more about iPhone or iPad, get the free eBook called 'iPad User Guide for iOS 9.3' or 'iPhone User Guide for iOS 9.3'

KINDLE

- Ebook app made by Amazon
- To get books on your device, you need to sign in to amazon.com and buy the book. When you sign in to the kindle app, you can access the books there.
- Just like iBooks, you can mark and search for content within the app.
- With Both iBooks and Kindle, you can open PDF from online. Do this by going to the share icon, and "Open in..." select "Copy to Kindle" or "Copy to iBooks"

GAMES

SOLITAIRE

- FREE FUN GAME!
- Just like solitaire, this is a fun card game that you can play when you want, just without the physical cards.
- Tip: Change the image on the card in the settings option.
- Tip: Get rid of ads by turning on airplane mode. This turns off WiFi, so the game can't pull off advertisements. This only works for games where you don't need internet to run properly.

ANGRY BIRDS

- A stupid yet addicting game.
- One of iOS' most popular games for iPhone, iPod touch and iPad.
- Millions of dollars worth of Revenue.
- Became so popular, the Angry Birds Movie will be coming out later this year.

BLOOD & HONOR

- Free but limited edition, or $2.99 for full version
- This is just like the game RISK! I play this with my sibling while I am waiting for graduations or programs to start.
- You can play with friends, online, or against the computer (paid version only).
- With the paid version, there are multiple boards that you can choose from (World Conquer, Eastern Front, North America, South Pacific, etc.)

APP WITH A NEIGHBOR

HANDS ON

INSTRUCTIONS

- FIRST ACTIVITY: Please send me an email (gmail or other) at ngblaylock@gmail.com on your favorite app and why.
- SECOND ACTIVITY: Open iBooks, and in the “Search” Option type in either “iPhone User Guide for iOS 9.3” or “iPad User Guide for iOS 9.3”. Tap “Get”. Now you have the User Guide that will help you answer questions about this class.
- THIRD ACTIVITY: Download and open Pandora. Sign up for an account, and create a new station with your favorite type of music.

HOMEWORK

- Explore different options for entertainment. There may be more things that you are interested than you thought you could get on your iPhone or iPad.
- Come to class tomorrow ready to share a couple apps that you have discovered and have enjoyed particularly. Hopefully on Friday we will be able to explore a lot of different Apps that I haven't even heard of.
